

Foundations - Humane Society of North Texas

RadicalRed, 2018

HSNT's mission is to act as an advocate on behalf of all animals and to ensure their legal, moral and ethical consideration and protection; to provide for the well-being of animals who are abandoned, injured, neglected, mistreated or otherwise in need; to promote an appreciation of animals; and to instill respect for all living things.

In accordance to our mission, we promote kindness, justice and mercy to every living creature entering our door.

Our shelter is dedicated to providing a place of protection for animals in need and none are turned away.

To accomplish our mission we provide the following services.

Adoptions

Humane Investigations

Animal Surrender/Admission

Emergency Rescue (K911)

Spay & Neuter Program

Lost & Found

Animal Education

The Humane Society of North Texas (HSNT) is a non-profit organization serving Tarrant and surrounding counties since 1905. We are supported solely by tax deductible donations and do not receive funding from county, state or federal entities, nor are we subsidized by any other organization.

[Submitted by Radical Red]

